SOME THOUGHTS OF MINE
Long Long Ago
by Murray Tuttle

Mattapoisett long ago was a busy little town;
The song of the saw and hammer could be heard for miles around.
Here were many Captains who had sailed the mighty deep
When whaling was the business of a mighty powerful fleet.

With shipyards building whaleboats all along the shore
It surely was a busy place, when I look at the score.
About four hundred whaleboats slid gracefully down the ways
Men worked from sun to sunset, surely some long days.

The wages were quite meager, a dollar a day per man.
And yet all were quite happy, tho it's hard to understand
How they built pretty houses, that stood an hundred years or more
And never seemed to be in need of things we now adore.

The houses were hewed in the forest from pine and good oak trees
That had waved their leaves in glory to the water of the seas.
The workmanship of the adsman is wonderful to see,
For it's perfect in its pattern and true as it can be.

The structure was put together in the woods where it was found;

This week have one meal of...
DEEP SEA SCALLOPS
No Fuss No Waste

Every timber was lettered and numbered from the ridgepole to the ground.
Then the frame it was dismantled and brought down to the town
And when it all was on the plot the carpenters gathered round.

With a keg of rum to quench their thirst,
men started in to build
And put the puzzle together until every place
was filled
With the timber that was intended to fit into its space
The frame was reconstructed; pins held it in its place.

They had no running water, nor yet electric lights
But their houses sure were spic and span; the paint was always white.
They had no stoves to speak of but the fireplace kept um hot
And its burning cast a brightness, making home a lovely spot.

The women were quite happy with their little girls and boys.
They had to find enjoyment there, for the children had few toys.
And so they raised large families of which they were so proud
And of the many attributes with which they were endowed.

The wooden pump was much in use, but away
out in the yard,
And the whale oil lamps and candles that they
held in high regard.
And the food was most enjoyable, so often
I've been told
And everyone was welcome to eat all they could hold.

COUNTY ROAD - A SUGGESTION

Probably everyone in Mattapoisett has driven down County Road this week, and have been struck as we were at the barrenness of a place without trees. To build the new, wide highway which well be of benefit to us all, so many of the beautiful shade trees had to be cut down. A few weeks ago, we received a letter, asking us to protest the cutting of those trees. We did not do so because we felt that the engineers would cut only enough to make possible the building of the road, and we feel that this is what they did. Unfortunately, however, few of the trees could be spared. We felt that rather than protest the inevitable that we would rather suggest a constructive plan. It may be that already one or more of our very public spirited town organizations is thinking along these lines. We certainly hope so. We would like to suggest, in any event that some plan be evolved so that for every tree that is gone, one would be planted to take its place. Perhaps each of our organization could plant a single tree far enough back so as not to interfere with traffic. Maybe a collection could be made as we did for the Ambulance. We offer space in the paper to publicize any such movement to restore beauty and shade along the new road. If you had not already noticed, please go to County Road and take a look. We need those trees very badly.

VERSITIS

There are so many people
Who are breaking out with verse,
I will confess I too, am one
Afflicted with that curse.

It's a persistent ailment
That comes and goes at will;
There is no lasting cure for it -
No poultice, salve or pill.

The best thing for one to do,
When the fever rises higher,
Is just sit down and write the verse -
Then throw it in the fire!

It was very successful and increased their service fund, and they would like to say at this time that all the money a Lions Club raises in their various undertakings, must be used for benefits of all descriptions and cannot be used for any other purposes, so that any funds that they raise will be used for the benefit of the town and its townspeople.

The winners of the prizes given away are as follows: Warren Simmons of Whitman, Mass., portable radio; Jean Snyder of Marion, Mass., electric frying pan; John Carlos of Mattapoisett, 100 gallons of gasoline and H. Hazard of New Bedford, 25 dollar saving bond.

The Cape Cod Riders Club donated $100 of their profit from the horse show to the Lions Club to be added to their Charity Fund.

TOWN BEACH RAKED AND CLEANED

Mr. Frank J. Caples, lifeguard at the town beach, has been adding some extra activities to his many duties at the beach. The results are very plain to be seen, and they are great.

The seaweed is gone and so are the stones that did nothing to add to the beach. It was quite a job, as the wet seaweed weighs plenty, and we thank Mr. Caples, and those who helped him from time to time.

POLICE ASSOCIATION SQUARE DANCE

In answer to a request from the Polio Foundation, the Police Association very generously offered the entire proceeds of their square dance with the exception of 50 dollars. It was a beautiful night for the dance with the full moon lighting the wharf, and a very good crowd attended. The calling by Dick Doyle was excellent, and the whole affair was enjoyed by all.

To a town saddened by the death of Patty Walsh who was struck so suddenly by the terrible disease, such prompt and generous action by the Police Dept. is deeply appreciated. Over three hundred dollars was collected for the fund from this dance alone.

Joseph Magilton, town chairman of the drive is assisted by a committee composed of Police Sergeant Alfred Faria, chairman, Police Chief Alden Kinney, Fire Chief George C. Bradley, George Heath, Jr. and Milton Heuberger. The Police Association and the Firefighters Association conducted a house to house canvas in addition to the dance, using cruiser car and fire trucks. The canvas was as successful as the square dance and although the money is not all, in the total will be over $1000.00
